The order was payable at the postoffice in this city, and when it was presented here by the merchant this morning he was informed that amount had been raised from $2.75 to $13.75. The alteration had been well done. The holder of the order at once went to the president of the college and stated the facts to him. A search was made for Austin, and it was discovered that he had left for Lynchburg on the first train this morning. A telegram was thereupon sent to Lynchburg requesting the arrest of Austin on his arrival there and to hold him that an officer could be sent for him.

The Centennial Celebration-College Sports-Church Matters. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] APRIL 30, 1889.

The celebration of the centennial of Wash-The celebration of the centennial of Washington's first insuguration was begun here last night by a reunion of many old students of Raudolph-Macon College, and also by an exhibition of the class of physical culture under the supervision of Professors Crenshaw and Hayes. The large and finely-equipped symmasium of the college was filled with friends of the young men who were to take part in the exercises, and they were to take part in the exercises, and they were more than repaid by the excellent exhibit made by the class. The following took the most active part in the club-swinging, German horse-work, parallel and horizontal bars, sparring, rings, &c., &c.: Messrs. Strickler, Williams, Richardson, Starke, Gesen, Cooke, Exchand, Read, and Webb. Green, Cooke, Ragiand, Read, and Webb. A sparring match between Masters William and Dias Archer was greatly enjoyed. These little fellows displayed much science, and showed they had received careful training. Between the different numbers the College Giee Club, led by Mr. Sheppe, gave saveral

Presenting, Va., May 2, 1889.

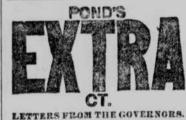

At the May term of the County Court of Deex, which commences to-morrow, the trial of young Carleton Marks, indicted for the murder of Mr. Nat. N. Bain, will take place. Judge Rives, of Prince George, will presize at the trial, at the invitation of Judge Shelton, of Sussex, whe very properly declines to sit because of his relations to the case.

A case of somewhat unusual character was brought to the attention of the police authorities to-day. It is said that Frank Austin, a colored student at the Virginia Normal and Collegiate Institute, yesterday afternoon had a poetal meney-order for $13.75 cashed at the store of a merchant in Ettrick. The order was psyable at the post-office in this city, and when it was presented here by the merchant this merning he was informed that amount had been raised from $3.75 to $13.75. It is a well-known fact that Poxp's Extract is used and recommended by more distinguished people than any preparation or remedy extant.

It is used in the household of the President as well as that of the humblest citizen; by members of the army and the navy, the Bar and the Bench, the pulpit and the press all ranks and classes of people. To further illustrate this fact we append a few of the more recent letters from Governors of dif-ferent States:

The Governor of New Hampshire. Gentlemen: I have used Pond's Extract in my family for several years, and have found it a most desizable and valuable remedy. Yours trnly, Moody Cummus. Dec. 3, '87.

The Governor of Pennsylvania. GENTS: POND'S EXTRACT has been a valued reliance in our family for several years, especially in relieving the aches, appains and bruises incident to children. Nov. 30, '87. JAMES A. BEAVER.

The Governor of New Jersey. DEAR Sin: I have for many years used PoxD's Extract, and have derived great benefit and relief therefrom. Yours fruly, Dec. 5, '87.

The Lt.-Governor of Illinois. GENTLEMEN: POND'S EXTRACT has long had a place in the medicine chest of my family. I assure you that we have found it a ready and valuable agent to relieve pain in many cases, and that very promptly. We cannot well keep house without it.

I am, truly yours.
